C Southern nights

A7 Have you ever felt a D7 southern night? |

F Free as a breeze, not to | mention the trees,
Whistlin' Em tunes that you knew, and loved G7 so

C Southern nights

A7 Just as good even when, D7 closed your eyes, |

I a F apologise... | to any Em one who can truly say,
That he has G7 found a better way, hey

G7 | | |

C Southern skies

A7 Have you ever noticed, D7 southern skies? |

Well, F it's precious beauty lies, | just beyond the eye

It goes Em runnin' through your soul,

Like the G7 stories told of old

C Old man

A7 He and his dog that walk the D7 old land |

Every F flower touched, | his cold hand

As he Em slowly walked by,

Weepin' G7 willows would cry for | joy, | | joy |

C Feels so good

A7 Feels so good it's frightenin'

D7 Wish I could, | stop this world from fightin'

F La, da, da, dah-da, | da, dah-da, da, dah-da

Da Em dah-da, da, dah-da, G7 da, dah-da, da, dah-da

C Mystery, A7 like this and many others D7 in the trees |

F Blow in the night, | in the southern G7 skies |

C Southern nights

A7 They feel so good it's frightenin'

D7 Wish I could, | stop this world from fightin'

F La, da, da, dah-da, | da, dah-da, da, dah-da

La Em dah-da, da, dah-da, G7 da, dah-da, da, dah-da
