

Polk Salad Annie

Tony Joe White

{E7 | | |

E7 Down in Louisi | ana, where the | alligators grow so | mean
| Lived a girl that I | swear to the world

E7↓ Made the alligators look nc tame

Polk salad A7 Annie, | polk salad E7 Annie |

Every Gbody said it was a A shame

'Cause her G mama was workin' on the A chain-gang

E7 A mean, | vicious woman | | | |

E7 Everyday before | suppertime, she'd | go down by the truck | patch

And | pick her a mess of polk | salad

And E7↓ carry it home in a tote nc sack

Polk salad A7 Annie, | the gators got your E7 granny |

Every Gbody said it was a A shame

'Cause her G mama was workin' on the A chain-gang

E7 A wretched, | spiteful, | straight-razor totin' woman |

| Lord have mercy | | |

Her E7 daddy was a lazy and | no-count

| Claimed he had a bad back |

| All her brothers were | fit for

Was stealin' E7↓ watermelons out of my nc truck patch

Polk salad A7 Annie, | the gators got your E7 granny |
Every Gbody said it was a A shame
'Cause her G mama was workin' on the A chain-gang

E7 | | | Sock a little | polk salad to him |
You know I need a | mean mess of it | | E7↓
