

You Wear It Well

Rod Stewart

D I D had G nothin' to do on this | hot afternoon
But to A settle down and write you a D line
I've been G meanin' to phone you but | from Minnesota
A Hell it's been a very long D time
You wear it A well
A 1/2Em little old 1/2D fashioned but 1/2G that's all A right 1/2A

D Well, D I G suppose you're thinkin' I | bet he's sinkin'
Or he A wouldn't get in touch with D me
Oh, G I ain't beggin' or | losin' my head
I A sure do want you to D know
That you wear it A well
1/2Em There ain't a 1/2D lady in the 1/2G land so A fine, oh my 1/2A

D Remember D them G basement parties, your | brother's karate
The A all day rock and roll D shows
Them G homesick blues and | radical views
A Haven't left a mark on D you
You wear it A well
A 1/2Em little out of 1/2D time but 1/2G I don't A mind 1/2A

But I D ain't D for G gettin' that you were once D mine
But I G blew it without even D tryin'
Now I'm G eatin' my heart out
A Tryin' to get a letter through D D

A | 1/2Em 1/2D 1/2G A |

1/2Em Since you've been 1/2D gone it's hard to 1/2G carry A on 1/2A

I'm gonna D write a D bout the G birthday gown that I | bought in town
When you A sat down and cried on the D stairs

You knew it did not G cost the earth, but for | what it's worth

You A made me feel a million Daire

And you wear it A well

1/2Em Madame O 1/2D nassis got 1/2G nothin' on A you, no no 1/2A

Any D way, D my G coffee's cold and I'm | gettin' told

That I A gotta get back to D work

So when the G sun goes low and you're | home all alone

A Think of me and try not to D laugh

And I wear it A well

1/2Em I don't 1/2D object if you 1/2G call col Alect 1/2A

Cos I D ain't D for G gettin' that you were once D mine

But I G blew it without even D tryin'

Now I'm G eatin' my heart out

A Tryin' to get back to D you
